Integral Coaching

Change is at the root of coaching. Integral coaching looks at the whole person and uses the wisdom that already exists somewhere in the individual to bring about the desired change. It is not about the coach being the expert and telling the client what to do but instead helping them uncover their own solutions to bring about change.

Most approaches to change are partial and, therefore, don't last. An Integral approach brings about change that endures over time.

Integral Coaching can be beneficial in many areas, including
Leadership Development
Time management/Productivity
Life is no longer fun
Changing Careers
Lack of Purpose
I got a promotion. Now what

Coaching Sessions can be in person or over Zoom to minimize disrupting your busy schedule.
